OUR GOAL

Hidden Treasure draws from places long forgotten, where time moves slowly, and meaning gathers quietly.

It speaks to what lies beneath: not lost, but waiting to be rediscovered. The two patterns in this collection reflect distinct moments in that journey. One is layered and grounded, evoking the rhythm of sedimentation and erosion, and the quiet touch of nature. The other is more refined and structured, revealing subtle geometries that emerge like ancient traces through soft materiality.

QUIET LEGACY

What's hidden is not lost.
Time preserves what matters.
Stillness holds its own kind of power.
Beneath silence, stories endure.

In this duo, layered textures and softened forms echo the quiet grace of things long buried. One design draws from natural erosion and organic layering, while the other reveals delicate, structured patterns, like ancient geometry resurfacing through time-worn surfaces. Together, they invite a gentle rediscovery of beauty beneath the visible.
