OUR GOAL

As its name suggests, Awakening Carpet Tile captures the serene transition from night to day, that magical moment when the world stirs from slumber and light slowly takes over the darkness. This product is inspired by the beauty of early mornings: a time of renewal, of quiet energy building, and of nature bathed in soft, radiant hues. With Awakening, VOXFLOR offers more than just carpet tile. It's a unique sensory journey, a symphony of textures and colors that brings the beauty of a new beginning into your space.

AWAKENING

The color palette represents a gentle emergence, showcasing a harmonious blend of warm neutral grays and beiges that evoke a sense of calmness. In contrast, vibrant accents inspired by the first light of day create positive highlights. Soft sky blues, sunlit yellows, glowing oranges, reds, and the fresh greens of dew-kissed foliage come together to create a visual experience that feels grounded and uplifting.

Designed with flexibility in mind, Awakening supports a range of spatial expressions. It can be used to create calm, elegant environments through uniform tones, while subtle variations allow for gentle zoning and flow. Brighter accents bring opportunities for emphasis and identity, whether defining areas or introducing bold design elements.
